Philippians 1
Mind over circumstances

Philippians was written by Paul to the Philippians while Paul is imprisoned in Rome (Philippians 1:13-14, 4:22)

History:

Philippi received its name from Philip, the father of Alexander the Great. It is said that it was founded on the site of an old Thasian settlement surrounded by numerous small rivers and springs descending from the neighboring mountains. The Thasians, who inhabited the island of Thasus, lying off the coast in the Aegean Sea, had been attracted to the place by the valuable mines of gold and silver which were found in that region. It was a city of Macedonia, just east of Thessalonica. Philip invaded this country and built a new city, on the site of the old Thasian colony, which he called after his own name, Philippi. When Macedonia became subject to the Romans, they sent a colony there, and it became one of the most flourishing cities of the empire.
